Announcements

The 8th Annual Midnight Sun Science Symposium is April 13th and 14th, 2017 on the first floor of the Murie Building. The Midnight Sun Science Symposium is an interdisciplinary research conference held at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. Organized by the BGSA, the symposium is for undergraduate or graduate students in the natural sciences interested in presenting their work or finding new collaborators in the far north. More information can be found at the symposium website.

The Alaska Cooperative Fish and Wildlife Research Unit presents the Annual Research Review on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 in the Regents' Boardroom, 109 Butrovich Building. Talks from Unit faculty and graduate students begin at 8:15 a.m. and the poster session begins at noon. A parking pass or parking decal is now required to park in the Butrovich lot. See this document for more information. Please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/RR2017AKCFWRU> if you plan to attend.
