Announcements

UAF requires Title IX training for all employees within 30 days of hire and to be renewed annually. This year UAF has updated its training module to a new format that provides straight forward information accompanied by resources that are available for future reference. All UAF employees are required to update this training by September 30.

Title IX training is now accessed through the uonline webpage. Instructions are located on the UAF safety training website halfway down the page.

Quote of the Day

The aim of life is to live, and to live means to be aware, joyously, drunkenly, serenely, divinely aware.
