Announcements

One more Life Science Hour schedule change:

Charles Goldman is back on to present the Life Science Hour seminar this Friday at 3:00pm in the Murie Auditorium. More information on our Life Science Hour webpage.

2017 Welcoming BBQ

Wednesday, September 13 at 5:30 p.m in front of the Murie Building. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share.

UAF requires Title IX training for all employees within 30 days of hire and to be renewed annually. This year UAF has updated its training module to a new format that provides straight forward information accompanied by resources that are available for future reference. All UAF employees are required to update this training by September 30 .

Title IX training is now accessed through the uonline webpage. Instructions are located on the UAF safety training website halfway down the page.
