Announcements

UAF requires Title IX training for all employees within 30 days of hire and to be renewed annually. This year UAF has updated its training module to a new format that provides straight forward information accompanied by resources that are available for future reference. All UAF employees are required to update this training by September 30 .

Title IX training is now accessed through the uonline webpage. Instructions are located on the UAF safety training website halfway down the page.
