Announcements

Mark Lindberg has officially launched the Hunting Science Podcast (huntingscience.community.uaf.edu/) with the assistance of the great eCampus staff and the Office of Intellectual Property and Commercialization. The goal of this podcast is to educate the hunting community about the science of hunting. Most episodes will feature colleagues in Alaska, including IAB faculty so subscribe and stay tuned. Mark and his podcast were recently featured nationally in episodes 33 and 34 of the Ducks Unlimited Podcast (www.ducks.org/dupodcast). He will discuss this podcast and other ways of communicating science at his Life Sciences Seminar on 6 December.

The annual IAB Ski Mass and Holiday Party will be held on Friday, December 6, 2019.

SKI MASS: Begins at noon at the West Ridge Ski Hut. Teams of 3 costumed skiers ski twice around a short course, competing for fastest and slowest time, least and greatest time differential, and best costume. Volunteers are also needed to help with timekeeping, judging, and refreshments. Race description and rules can be found by clicking the Ski Mass event in the IAB online calendar. Sign-up to ski or to volunteer by completing the google form found at: http://bit.ly/2qaD0FJ

HOLIDAY PARTY: Musher's Hall on Farmer's Loop, 6-9pm. Bring your families, and a dish to share! Ski Mass prizes will be awarded at the Holiday Party.
